

HUNTER B. GREENE, RA, LEED AP

Director of Architecture

Since starting as an architect in 1981, Hunter has worked in urban and rural contexts on a range of projects including large state and federal projects, small town revitalizations, adaptive reuse, workforce housing, and master planning. Hunter's approach to design is consistently sensitive to historic and environmental context.

Organizations/Affiliations:

Licensed Architect - Virginia, New York

Leadership in Energy & Environmental Design (LEED)

Earthcraft Architect Professional
(2011 to present)

Certified Universal Design Architect
(2010 to present)

AIA Blue Ridge
(Board Member 1995-2003;
President 2000-2001)

Virginia Society AIA
(Board Member 2000-2003)

Roanoke Regional Housing Network
(Board Member 1991-1995)

Academic Background:

Master of Arts in Liberal Studies
New York University, 1992

Bachelor of Architecture and Urban Studies
Virginia Tech, 1981

Professional Background:

Director of Architecture, Hill Studio
2007 to present
Roanoke, Virginia

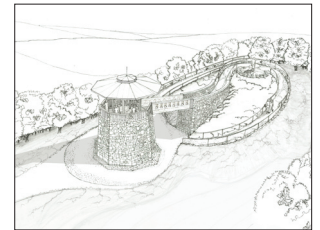

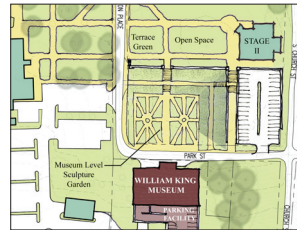

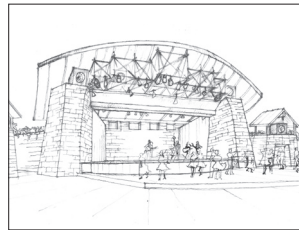

Project Manager/Owner's Representative,
Taubman Art Museum
2005-2007
Roanoke, Virginia

Senior Manager, DBI Architects, Inc.
2004-2005
Washington, DC

Director of Architecture, LMW PC
1995-2004
Roanoke, Virginia

Sole Proprietor, HBG Architecture
1991-1995
Salem, Virginia

Project Architect, HSSM
1989-1991
Roanoke, Virginia

Project Experience

Municipal / Institutional

- Muster Grounds Visitor Center, Abingdon, Virginia
- Rocky Mount Amphitheater 'The Furnace', Rocky Mount, Virginia
- The Forge School for the Arts Conceptual Plan, Clifton Forge, Virginia
- Community Center, Town of Halifax, Virginia
- The Taubman Art Museum, Roanoke, Virginia
- Health and Human Services Facility, City of Roanoke, Virginia
- Mountain Empire Sustainable Energy Project, MECC, Big Stone Gap, VA
- Fire-EMS Station # 4, City of Roanoke, Virginia
- Courthouse Square Master Plan, County of Nelson, Lovingston, Virginia
- Garage and Maintenance Facility, County of Nelson, Virginia
- Claytor Rail Car Pavilion, Virginia Museum of Transportation, Roanoke
- The Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, DC
- High Knob Tower and Site Design, Norton, Virginia
- Stone Building, General Services Administration, Roanoke, Virginia
- Post Office Site Adaptations, Postal Service Admin, various sites in Virginia

Workforce / Affordable Housing

- Interior Renovations at Landsdowne, HHRA, Roanoke, Virginia
- Apartment Complex Restorations, MRHA, Marion, Virginia
- Ryan School Apartments, Ryan School Apartments LLC, Shipman, Virginia
- Southridge Estates, Southridge LLC, Wytheville, Virginia
- Roanoke At Home, Total Action Against Poverty, Roanoke, Virginia
- Shenandoah Village, Phases I, II & III, Village in Roanoke LLC, Roanoke, Virginia
- Queens Court Subdivision, RRHA, Roanoke, Virginia
- Loudon Ave. at Home, Blue Ridge Housing Development, Roanoke, Virginia

Multifamily Residential Housing

- Kirk Avenue Condominiums, Roanoke, Virginia
- Mansions Square, Roanoke Virginia
- Shenandoah Building Apartments
- Dormitory Addition, Duffield, Virginia